NutritionTips

- Before breakfast is the most crucial time to burn calories from the day before. Go on a walk before breakfast. Some options are eggs or fruit for breakfast.
- If you're not looking to cook and would rather buy food, some good options are subway, tropical smoothie, or non-fried sushi.
- Take your normal calorie total per day and eat 300 less calories to remain in a calorie deficit throughout the week.
- Walk after dinner and before breakfast. 8-9 hours of sleep per night is key for recovery.
- Send me a picture of you before the program so we can compare it to 4 weeks in.

Keep In Mind

- Each workout is about 1 hour long
- The high rep count of 15 is to keep the heart rate elevated
- More reps with shorter rest is ideal here for weight loss
